

THE ELECTRONIC ORCHESTRA

THE ELECTRONIC ORCHESTRA

This is the initial album of the world's first electronic orchestra. Formed in early 1980, the orchestra consists of 8 synthesizers played by musicians from conservatories and universities in the Toronto area. The sound they create is often similar to that of a traditional orchestra, but ultimately this is a new sound and not a replacement for what has gone before. Great music of the past performed on instruments of the future.

Direction and arrangements by Mychael Danna.
RECORDED AT: The Berryman 24 Studios Inc., Toronto.
ENGINEER: Dave Beare.

COVER: Nyran.

GRAPHICS: The Creative Stroke Inc.
