VOICE OF ANGELS

Dictations by the Archangels

A SUMMIT LIGHTHOUSE RECORDING

The Board of Directors of The Summit Lighthouse takes great pleasure in announcing the release of a new series of record albums, containing Dictations by the Heavenly Hosts, "SPOKEN FROM THE SUMMIT" thru the Messengers of the Spiritual Hierarchy, Mark and Elizabeth Prophet.

These Dictations will be released from time to time as a part of the program of The Darjeeling Council to penetrate the Earth with more Light and to make available to more and more people through the Power of the Spoken Word the true Teachings of the Christ. They are planned to increase mankind's awareness of the Reality and the Nearness of the Ascended Masters, the Angelic Hosts, and the Elemental Builders of Form.

Our first album, VOICE OF ANGELS, contains four full-length Dictations: three by the Archangels of the First, Fifth and Seventh Rays and one by the Archaii of the Seventh Ray. Each of these Addresses by Members of the Angelic Hosts is intended to elevate the consciousness of the listener, as the Power of Heavenly Inspiration is lowered into the chalice of his heart. Through this exchange between Heaven and Earth, this sharing between higher and lower forms of Life, it is hoped that greater cooperation in the Order of Angels, Elementals and Men will be brought about and with it an increased understanding of just why this cooperation is necessary in the building of "a new Heaven and a new Earth" in preparation for the coming Golden Age.

It is our hope that all who hear these Dictations will be blessed with renewed enthusiasm to take part in the Grand Design which includes an individual pattern, a mission, for each man, woman, and child. It is our prayer that the assistance of the Angelic Hosts, as it is invoked through Communion with their Bands, will cause a Mighty Tide of Light to sweep the Earth with that Christ-Victory which overcomes and transcends all that would deny to the world the Freedom and Illumination that is the Divine Inheritance of every man.

THE ORDER OF ANGELS, ELEMENTALS AND MEN

When God created Man and commanded him to be fruitful in Service, to multiply His Graces and to take Dominion over the Earth, He gave him Helpers to assist in the important task of expanding His Kingdom. Angelic Ministrants and Elemental Servants of Earth, Air, Fire, and Water formed the Cosmic Retinue that accompanied Man as he descended to Earth, "trailing clouds of Glory" and vowing, "Lo, I AM come to do Thy Will, O God!"

During three Golden Ages, Man talked freely with his God and associated intimately with Angels and Elementals, Communion with all Life was unrestrained and cooperation between Angels, Elementals and Men was unspoiled.

To Man was given the assignment of overseeing the Creation and working with God to plan, to design, to invent and to direct. To the Elementals, the Builders of Form, was given the important task of bringing into manifestation the Intents of God and Man. And to the Angels was given the Holy Ordination of ministering to the needs of both Men and Elementals.

Before Man went forth from out the Center of God's Being, he had asked, "Father, might I not be given the Freedom to choose the Way, the Plan, and the Action of my life?" In His Great Heart of Love the Father knew what pain might come upon a creation that would be free to go against His Will, but He also saw the Great Opportunity for Expansion and Rejoicing that would come to those who would choose to follow His Plan.

And so, out of His Infinite Wisdom came the Fiat, "Man shall have the Gift of Free Will; and whosoever shall prove in thought and word and deed that he can choose wisely and well in all things, to him will I give Glory and Honor and Power and Dominion; he shall sit upon My Right Hand and he shall preside over the kingdoms of the world, over the Elements and the Angelic Hosts."

This was one of the Great Moments in Cosmic History: Man had been given Free Will and with it the Opportunity to become a Co-Creator with God. "Made a little lower than the Angels," he would be "crowned with more Glory and Honor" if he used this precious Gift to glorify God, to bless his fellow men, and to master his environment and himself.

It was the Seven Mighty Elohim, Directors of Elemental Life and Masters of Precipitation who had responded to the Seven Great Commands of God that culminated in the Creation of Man. Now the Hierarchs of the Four Elements, Four Pillars in the Temple of Being serving under the Elohim, pledged to sustain the balance of Life on Terra, in Nature and in Man. Salamanders, Gnomes, Sylphs and Undines, mimics of the Grand Design, all served to keep Man's House in order and to sustain his noble form. Laborers in the Father's vineyard, Harvesters of His Sowings, the Beings of the Elements occupy a most important position in the Trinity of God in Manifestation as they heed each beck and call of God and Man.

The Angelic Hosts, like the Elemental Builders of Form, were not given the Freedom to express, to move and to create on their own. They remained tethered to the Father's Will, His slightest Wish was Their Command--Cherubim and Seraphim, Mighty Archangels and Their Archaii, created by God to amplify His Attributes: His Illuminating Wisdom, His All-enfolding Love, His Omnipotence and Faith, the Eternal Constancy of His Omniscient Science, His Devotion to Being and Reality, His Purifying Wholeness and His Omnipresent Transcendancy -- the Power to make all things new.

God created the Angels out of His own Essence as Beings who would sustain His Magnificent Feelings throughout the Universe. Their assignment was to infuse Men and Elementals with those Qualities that are necessary in planning and executing the Will of God upon Earth: Faith, Hope and Charity, Peace, Understanding and Compassion, Purity, Comfort and Healing, Mercy and Forgiveness and such praise of Eternal Life as would unite Men and Elementals in Service to their Creator and in Love to one another.

Thus, while Man's portion was to become the Christ and to sustain on Earth the Illuminating Radiance of God's Mind, the Beings of the Elements would build the Temple to grace His Wisdom, stone on stone of measured Will--the Architect's Design. And Angel Beings, inspired by the Plan, vowed to bring coals of Inspiration still glowing from the Father's Hearth.

In this Trinity of Cooperation we behold the Action of the Cosmic Christ and the balanced Manifestation of the Cosmic Threefold Flame of Wisdom, Love and Power. Man holds the Torch of Wisdom, (the Golden Light) that all may follow in the Way; Elementals carry the burden of Light in Nature that is the Ray of Will and Power (Blue); and Angels hover ever near to sustain God's Love (Pink) each hour.

From the Centrosome of Being, The Great Central Sun, the Holy of Holies that is at once in God, in Universal Manifestation (the Macrocosm) and in Man (the Microcosm) as the Flame upon the Altar of his Heart, Angelic Messengers carry the Magnitude of the Divine Potential to the farthest reaches of Cosmos and Consciousness.

They come bearing Rainbow Hues of Joy and Beauty and Delight. Aureoles of the Dawn, They portend the Advent of the Christ in every man. Their Love and unfailing Direction is a Clarion Call that integrates the lower and the Higher Self in Unity of Purpose, Plan and Action. Their Love is a Balm of Friendship, an Unguent of Healing and the Oil of Heavenly Inspiration.

Their Love is a Divine Magnet that keeps the Stars on their appointed rounds, the atoms of our beings inclined to do the Heavenly Will and each monad in his rightful place. Their Love is a Sacred Tone, the Music of the Spheres, the Spirit that animates Nature and all things beautiful. It is Their Love that nurtures the sweet influences of Pleiades, that strengthens the bands of Orion, that adorns Arcturus with his Sons.

As a Co-Creator with God, Man was also given the Authority to invoke the Presence and Service of the Angelic Hosts Who pledged to answer his call so long as Man's requests were in keeping with the Father's Will. Opportunity was given to the Angels to receive the Gift of Free Will only after they would prove their ability to sustain the Pure Feelings of God during centuries of allegiance to the Creator and unswerving devotion to His Creation, Man. The Title "Archangel" was given to those who became masters of their worlds, "as Above so below" and that of Archaii to their Feminine Complements.

In order to earn this Office they had to embody in human form, coming through the normal channels of birth and experiencing the same tests as the Sons and Daughters of God. Archangel Michael once commented that during the most difficult trial of his overcoming, his Gethsemane, which occurred on another planet thousands of years ago, He was inspired by God to press on to Victory. Divine assistance was given to him through the moving strains of the hymn we know today as "Eternal Father Strong to Save," - the United States Navy Hymn.

Elementals, too, were given the Opportunity to evolve in the Order of the Spiritual Hierarchy. After proving their ability to sustain simple and then more complex patterns in Nature--

In the Hierarchy of Angels serving the evolutions of this solar system there are Seven Who have earned the Title of Archangel. These, together with their Archaii and the Legions in Their Command, have been given the responsibility for sustaining the Focus of the Seven Rays of God in the Feeling Bodies of Man.

| Ray | Archangel | Archaii | God-Quality Amplified | Radiational Pattern |
|----------------------|-----------|-----------|--|---------------------|
| I Will of God | Michael | Faith | Faith-Protection Desire to do the Will of God | Blue |
| II Wisdom of God | Jophiel | Christine | Wisdom-Intelligence Understanding; Desire to know God through the Mind of Christ | Yellow |

first a drop of rain, then a blade of grass, a forget-me-not, a rose, then a mighty oak, and finally, a great redwood--and after passing many tests of endurance, an Elemental with his Feminine Complement might become the overseers of an entire regiment and then even the Directors of all of the Elementals serving under one Element such as Oromasis and Diana, Who are in charge of the Fire Element and all Salamanders; Neptune and Luara, Who direct the Undines and the Mighty Waters; Aries and Thor, Who oversee the Graceful Sylphs and trackless realms of the Air; or Virgo and Pelleur, Mother and Father of Earth and Gnomes. From there the next step of advancement in the Elemental Kingdom is to become the Elohim of one of the Seven Rays.

Thus there is opportunity for each of the three evolutions to rise within their own Order and there is no limit to the attainment that can come to those who manifest the Will of God in any field of endeavor.

The Plan of Victory for the children of God was nobly defined in the life of Jesus and that of many other avatars who have been sent by God as Exemplars to point the Way of Freedom to generations who have lost their contact not only with God but also with the Heavenly Hosts and the Elementals. The Ascension and the Overcoming of every binding condition that must precede it are the Birthright and the Highlight of the life of all who are born of God.

When, through Service to Life, an individual Son or Daughter of God (1) attains mastery over outer circumstances, (2) balances 51 percent of his karma and (3) fulfills the Law of his Being--the Divine Mission that is the unique Plan for his lifestream--he may return to the Throne of Grace, being perfected in the Ritual of the Ascension. Once Ascended, he is known as an Ascended Master. Here Life truly begins and Man is ordained a Priest of the Sacred Fire in the eternal, ever-unfolding Service of his God.

All of Life (hence, all of God) is in the process of Ascending when it follows the divinely natural process of spiritual evolution. It is, therefore, through the Ascension that Angels, Elementals and Men find their way back to the Heart of God and the Eternal Life they once knew even before the Morning Stars sang together.
