Techno-Logos
 The Techno-Logos
 has been made flesh
 -from now on mankind will start on fresh the future war when they are told Shall be in his world
 TAKE THEM OUT AND SHOOT THEM
 Tomorrow she can easily be replicated by a computer At first we have news to relieve your tension:
 there is a major breakthrough in life-extensions on
 -we have PM Death
 in cryonic-suspension!
 -we have PM Death
 herself

Homo Gestalt
 People! We have the right that can help us take the solution Step in evolution.
 By some it has been called the Homo Gestalt, the human mind in fusion People! This is the final Vision, at last we've stumbled on the only right decision?
 Are you all plugged in?
 Shall we now begin
 The Life Transmission...

Wolf (Liturgy)
 I'm afraid I died some years ago...
 And if I'm expected to have feelings
 and unpredictability, shows you're alive
 If original thinking makes one thrive
 Words have lost their sparkle and I'm feeling dumb Things have lost their colour
 I become more numb
 -every day that passes
 Life is getting duller (Psychedelic mirror, get yourself in line you are just another reflection of time) Killer Boogie, do another twist Killer Boogie, can't be missed get back through the door.
 -Not half of all these people Crawling on the floor
 Can you see them coming Boogie for you
 They will soon be dancing form a slender queue.
 See the bunch of people
 Killer Boogie

Dead/Undead
 Life is getting duller
 -every day that passes
 I become more numb
 Things have lost their colour

 and unpredictability, shows you're alive
 to show
 -I'm afraid I died some years

Killer Boogie
 See the bunch of people

 Killer Boogie

All music by peyr, all words by HÖ except in Killer Boogie where the words have also been generously supplied by peyr. Album & sleeve design by HÖ. Special thanks to A. Schickelgruber for backing vocals on "Rudolf." Thank you A. Rodman and H. Death for your precious inspiration!

Shout

why can't you see that you yourself are the source where this comes from
- We wonder why you have to get all your kicks from martyrdom to oppose us is to stand against the grain and this my friend leads both sides' efforts to an end (a bitter end I'm compelled to say
- did you know what prisons cost taxpayers today?
It's a price we feel that you and she should never ever have to pay...)

All my life is endless strife
- I want to dream my homemade dreams

Are you still there

Your life did leave you behind so long ago that you don't care anymore. - This silly show that you were given in exchange for your mind and soul is so boring that sleep seems the only way out of itself
You've even stopped thinking about it

I wonder if there is still a little "you"
left inside

Rudolf

Rudolf does not ask the questions nor answer them, but his suggestions sink into the mind of the mob.
With throbbing hearts in blind belief they act their parts with great relief Rudolf is your shade, your double
- his presence will dispel your trouble
- you are invited to share his fate, to stand united in your common hate.

Current

Do you see the flood of time as having both a source and end?
Do you feel r fall or climb or did you come to understand that a circle is not positive/negative
A CYCLE IS THE WILL TO LIVE
A cycle is not positive/negative
The spiral moves beyond all terms, will you fly along as birds or will you end as swarming worms within the corpses of the words?

Enough

I don't care and that's
