FEETLEBAUM RETURNS!

DOODLES WEAVER

Movie actor, athlete, musician, comedian Doodles Weaver is entering his 35th year in entertainment, a career begun at Stanford University (Class of 1937) and the University of Southern California. Since his start in Hal Roach's film, "Topper," Doodles has appeared in 100 feature films, 500 Television shows, played Broadway, headlined Night Clubs all over the U.S.A., and been featured with famous bands like Horace Heidt, Freddie Martin, and Spike Jones, with whom he gained especial prominence as the radio character, "Professor Feetlebaum."

"FEETLEBAUM RETURNS" is Doodles' first album in 20 years, and contains his original comedy material — music and lyrics to laugh with.

So, sit back, put your feet in the fire, and enjoy yourself . . .

PATTIE BARHAM

Well-known columnist and society editor Pattie Barham makes her ringing-singing debut on this album with Doodles. Pattie, whose voice has a range of almost one octave, definitely proves what clear vibrant tones a girl can get with only 15 years of never practising. In the words of Maestro Glibwickett Firth, organizer of the famous Cave Greek Canyon Coyote Chorus: "Pattie Barham Sings."
